

Cerence to Power Zeekr Multilingual AI Assistant

May 29, 2024

Premium electric mobility technology brand Zeekr continues global expansion, integrates Cerence's industry-leading conversational AI across ten languages to deliver safer, more enjoyable driving experiences

BURLINGTON, Mass., May 29, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Cerence Inc. (NASDAQ: CRNC), AI for a world in motion, today announced that premium electric vehicle (EV) maker Zeekr will integrate Cerence conversational AI technology into its in-car virtual assistant. Zeekr is a global premium electric mobility technology brand under Geely Holding Group.

As part of its global expansion strategy, Zeekr has adopted user-driven technologies to meet the needs of drivers from all over the globe. For this commitment, Zeekr collaborates with Cerence to launch an AI-powered assistant, providing proactive and personalized experiences in a scalable solution. The platform features a high level of localization and is to be deployed across multiple regions and languages.

Zeekr has entered more than 20 international markets, including Sweden, the Netherlands, the United Arab Emirates, Singapore, and Australia. Deliveries of its RHD models will start in the third quarter of 2024. Zeekr continues its roll-out plans, aiming to operate in 50 international markets by the end of this year.

Cerence Assistant offers the latest in audio and voice AI innovation combined with extensive language support, meeting the needs of Zeekr customers globally. The solution delivers a multi-modal experience that integrates data from car sensors to understand complex situations both inside and around the vehicle, available across 14 regions and in 10 languages.

"Zeekr is a true innovator both in EV and user-centered design," said Christian Mentz, Chief Revenue Officer, Cerence. "Zeekr drivers will benefit from the company's unwavering commitment to innovation combined with Cerence's deep understanding of what's needed to deliver an intuitive, intelligent in-car assistant experience well suited for the global marketplace."
